GENERAL NEWS.

A correspondent of the Louisville Courier says: On last Thursday, June, 13th, as the masons were preparing the large stone for the door-sills of a banking house being erected in Springfield, Kentucky, they came upon a living frog in the middle of a large stone, walled about with solid stone on all sides. The frog was taken out and lived until the 17th instant. Its liberation was witnessed by some fifteen or twenty citizens. The stone from which it was taken is from the oldest strata that crops out on the surface in Kentucky.

On Tuesday, about 11 o'clock, two packages of money were received by the receiving teller of the Chesepeake bank in Baltimore, and placed on his desk, behind the screen usually surmounting bank counters; when, however, at 3 P. M., the bank was about closing, both packages were discovered to have mysteriously disappeared. One containing $10,000 in notes of out of town banks, of different denominations, and the other $1,000, in one and two do!lar legal tender notes, making in all $11,000.

The venerable Reuben Durrand Mussy, M. D., LL. D., died last Thursday, in Boston, at the age of 86, after an illness of two years, during the larger part of which time he had been confined to his room. Prof. Mussy was a native of New Hampshire, and one of the most learned and respected surgeons of New England.

Ellis Howe, the inventor and patentee of the sewing machine needle, has declared his purbose not to apply for an extension of his patent, which runs out this year, on the ground that he has made a million and a half dollars on it already, which he regards as fortune enough for

On Thursday last a woman named Kearney, residing in Rochester, came near putting an end to the existence of her child, a boy eleven years of age, by administering to him three "Pharaoh serpent eggs," for worms, with which the child was afflicted.

Part of Iowa has been perfectly deluged with rain for the past week. On last Sunday night it rained all night, and the wind blew, in places, a perfect hurricane. A regular whirlwind was instituted, similar to the great tornado of 1860, only on a smaller scale.

A despatch was received yesterday, announcing the death of Rev. J. F. Whiteside, a minister of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and Superintendent of New Market Circuit, Maryland.

Colonel Charles F. Johnson, Inspector General of the States of Kentucky and Tennessee, and Major F. W. Gilbreth, aide-de-camp to Major General Howard, Commissioner Bureau Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, has made a report on the Memphis riot. He

"The origin and results of the riot may be summed up briefly as follows: The remote cause was the feeling of bitterness which has always existed between the two classes. The miner affrays which occurred daily, especially between the police and colored soldiers, the general tone of certain city papers, which have almost constantly counselled the low whites to open hostilities with the blacks.

The immediate cause was the collision spoken of between a few policemen and negroes on the evening of the 30th of April, in which both above St. Asaph. parties may be equally culpable, followed on the evening of the 1st of May by another collision of a more serious nature, and subsequently by an indiscriminate attack upon unoffensive colcolored men and women.

How to GET UP REFRESHED. -As almost every one, in this heated weather, feels more or less dull on getting up of mornings, we recommend the following good advice, which we and in an exchange:

Every person who toils daily at any kind of icor, requiring great physical or mental exerion, should be extremely careful to practice a regular system of ablution at the close of each day's work. Sometimes a person may be so completely exhausted as to render this anyomission a great deal of the refreshment which the hours of repose are designed to impart, is lost. To be cleanly is a strictly religious duty, and is absolutely essential to sound and refreshing slumber; hence the labor of keeping one's person clean is amply repaid by the elasticity which follows from nightly ablutions before reciring. Heed this advice, and the reader will sleep soundly; disregard it-go to bed unwashed, and you will rise in the morning unrecreshed, with feelings of lassitude which the exertions of the day will hardly be able to re-
